1) Craft House - This brick structure, dates to about 1848, is thought to be the second-oldest house in downtown. Isaac Hardesty, who became the city's first mayor, lived here. The building, which was renovated by the city, is now the Hardesty-Higgins House & Visitor Center, museum and offices.

2) Keewee Building - The four-story, brick building with arched windows was constructed in 1907 & housed the News Register. Other tenants have included a music school, business college, public library, and the original offices of language learning software company Rosetta Stone.

3) People's Bank Building - This six-story corner building opened in 1916. Designed by Alfred Charles Boshom, who was one of the pioneer skyscrapers builders. Was Valley National Bank's headquarters until 1960s & Rockingham County school system had administrative offices there for years. It's now professional offices.

4) Newman-Ruddle Building - With its arched windows & structured steel, it opened as Rockingham National Bank in 1900. In 1939, the third floor became the home of WSWA, the first radio station in the area. Don Ruddle bought it in 1946 & the ground floor has had various uses.

5) Federal Building - Imposing with six columns, this three-story building is a federal courthouse and originally a post office. This building dates back until 1939, replaced the first federal building, constructed in 1866 on the same site. A historic mural is on display in the lobby.

6) Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church - Built in 1906 & designed by T.J. Collins. The tower & stained glass windows are elements of the Gothic Revival style.

7) Thomas Harrison House - This brick structure, dates to about 1848, is thought to be the second-oldest house in downtown. Isaac Hardesty, who became the City's first mayor, lived here. The building, which was renovated by the city, is now the Hardesty-Higgins House & Visitor Center, museum and offices.

8) Wetsel Seed Building - This facility was erected in 1933 & helped the Wetsel Seed Company become a key part of the Rockingham County economy. Today sections of the building are leased for commercial & retail space, and the second floor features the popular Union Station restaurant & bar.

9) Asbury United Methodist Church - Classical Revival four-story building with a buff stretcher-bond brick facade and a concrete foundation. There is also a free-standing sign with "Asbury" spelled out in large metal letters. The Denton furniture business was established in 1905 and built this large store in 1921. The upper floors were converted into apartments in 1932. This building now houses OASIS.

10) Woodbine Cemetery - This historic cemetery was founded in 1850 by community leaders as a non-denominational, non-profit community cemetery. According to

11) Denton Building - Classical Revival four-story building with a buff stretcher-bond brick facade and a concrete foundation. There is also a free-standing sign with "Asbury" spelled out in large metal letters. The Denton furniture business was established in 1905 and built this large store in 1921. The upper floors were converted into apartments in 1932. This building now houses OASIS.

12) St. Stephen's United Church of Christ - The limestone building with red doors dates to 1931. Built as St. Stephen's Reformed Church, includes cornerstone from 1807. Congregation was in 1894, but used a building on High Street before moving.

13) Coca-Cola Bottling Plant - New home to Brothers Craft Brewing and Trade Show Direct.